

frank nordby

From: "frank nordby" <franknordby@raleysExposed.com>
To: "jesusfann" <jesusalonesaves@comcast.net>
Sent: Wednesday, February 16, 2005 5:56 PM
Subject: Re: I'm sorry this hapened to your Dad!

Hello Ryan, I appreciated your email. It is unfortunate Raley's/Bel Air operate their business in such a dishonest manner. They have been dishonest for many years. Raley's got caught in their dishonesty when they published their history book back in 1989. You indicate you don't know whether this truly happened to my dad and the only thing I can say is my dad had no reason to lie about his unfortunate experience while being hired by Raley's back in the early 1970's. After he left Raley's, all he wanted to do was forget about this dishonest company and how they had to stoop so low and defraud him. But the good news for my dad before he passed away was that he accepted Jesus as his personal savior and was able to throw the truth back in Raley's face. Raley's didn't have a conscience back in the 1970's and they still don't. This world will some day pass away and then they will reap what they have sown.

Have a great day.
Frank

From: jesusfann

To: franknordby@raleysExposed.com
Cc: jesusalonesaves@comcast.net
Sent: Wednesday, February 16, 2005 3:47 PM
Subject: I'm sorry this hapened to your Dad!

My name is Ryan Charmbury.I have worked for Bel Air market(raleys owned) for 7 Years.I have seen there malice and dishonesty in many things.esp how they treat there employees and will Lie to protect the company at all costs!! dont know whether this truely hapened or not.I can say that seeing many years of lies and dishonesty,I whouldnt put it past them.

sincerely yours Ryan Charmbury