Glen Cole was my pastor when I attended Capitol Christian Center or 6 years 15 years ago. He is the best pastor I've ever had. I never knew him to be anything but honest. I would never believe a newspaper over Glen Cole's word. That's like believing what you read in the National Enquirer. Why don't you just leave him alone already and quit showing your ignorance?

Why are you harassing me? I am sorry, but I have found out through my experiences in this life that the world is full of human liars. It is good that you support Glen Cole. But why do you? Because he can speak in front of people? I am sorry, the newspaper referred to in Glen Cole's story wasnt the National Enquirer. It was just a small newspaper in a small town that had no other reason but to report a small time story and the truth about that story. A story that just happened to change after being publicly disclosed by Mr. Cole over eighteen (19) years later. The story change made Mr. Cole into a hero-how convenient for Mr. Cole in trying to impress his listeners. Now Sheree, contact the newspaper in question and ask them to do you favor by changing their story to match your human hero, and then ask them to send to me a correction to their errors.

One more thing Sheree: Here is your Biblical message for today. "It is better for you to trust in the Lord, than it is for you to put your confidence in men." Remember that the next time you want to flaunt another human being in front of me or anybody else. There is only one honest man I ever met in my life and it is the same man Mr. Cole wanted to call a liar and a slanderer----and that man was my dad. He didn't have to publicly tell stories and than find out later that his story didn't match a newspaper article written about him. My dad had many newspaper articles written about him in his life and never once did any newspaper story about him differ than what my dad may have said publicly. I am sorry, but Glen Cole hasn't proven to me that he is a man of his word...

You are free to believe what you want, and that right belongs to me too.

Oh by the way, Mr. Cole someday will answer to God, and you won't be on the sidelines cheering him on...How do you like those apples?

Frank

I wasn't harassing you Sir, and I totally understand your devotion and loyalty to your Dad. Your e-mail represented a lot of anger in it. I already have the knowledge to follow God and not man. You are loyal and devoted to your Dad, as many are to Pastor Glen Cole based on more than one incident. You don't have to express your anger towards me by saying things like, 'How do you like those apples?' etc. I just asked why you were harassing him. I believe that on the judgement day, Pastor Cole will enter in to the gates and yes, I will be standing on the sidelines cheering him on, and as you said also, you have your opinion and I have mine. I did not express any anger towards you, I was just curious. I'm sorry if I offended or upset you in anyway.

Hello Sheree, no I am not angry with you, on the contrary, I am just humoring you. You took my email more seriously than I took yours. Hey, I am not harassing Mr. Cole- I am featuring him on my web site. Hey, have a great new year, and don't forget to snuggle your Glenny Bear tonight when you go to sleep.
